UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-EAU CLAIRE
STUDENT SENATE RESOLUTION

CALL FOR AN ACADEMIC EDI CERTIFICATE

1. WHEREAS, the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire Student Senate is the official voice of the student body; and
2. WHEREAS, according to the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire EDI Strategic Plan for 2025, “It is imperative to implement curricular revisions to better address issues of race, ethnicity, language/dialect, etc. within academic disciplines including EDI-related themes and/or topics (e.g. colonialism, LGBTQ+, related issues, etc.) in content”¹; and
3. WHEREAS, the current university offering for an EDI certificate is “co-curricular,” meaning that one must volunteer outside of their academic degree planning to participate in workshops and conferences; and
4. WHEREAS, the co-curricular EDI certificate is entirely dependent on student employees not adequately trained nor have a deep understanding of the topics to provide in-depth critical analysis and dialogue on content surrounding EDI education housed in a department that is unable to fulfill the needs of the current co-curricular EDI certificate; and
5. WHEREAS, the co-curricular EDI certificate does not have the capacity to support the demand for it due to a lack of funding and staffing within the Center for EDI Training, Development, and Education; and
6. WHEREAS, students have expressed concern over the participation and completion of the co-curricular EDI Certificate, citing they have not been able to see their workshops completed, what to do for Tier 3, inconsistent project proposals for Tier 3 being denied and similar ones being accepted, and a lack of communication within the Center for EDI Training, Development, and Education; and
7. WHEREAS, in conversation with directors and deans, solutions such as creating curricula that incorporate EDI has been a proposed solution but does not adequately assess the needs for content to address issues of race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, dis/ability, etc.; and
8. WHEREAS, the co-curricular EDI certificate has been cited to have been developed for students who were not able to incorporate EDI education into their degree plans, however, this conflicts with sentiments and backing that support the development of an academic EDI certificate would allow students to better manage their time; and

WHEREAS, The development of an academic EDI certificate, meaning a certificate with course requirement, pre-requisites, evidence-based, and evidence-informed content, would excel University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire towards the goals for the EDI Strategic Plan for 2025; and

WHEREAS, In conversation with EDI executive staff members, the development of an academic EDI certificate is possible and achievable with the current course offerings for the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire’s R1 credit requirement; and

WHEREAS, The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire and its colleges have the capability to provide support and sponsorship for a general EDI certificate within the College of Arts and Sciences, an EDI certificate centered for the College of Business, an EDI certificate centered for the College of Education and Human Sciences, and an EDI certificate centered for the College of Nursing; and

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, to achieve the goals of the EDI Strategic Plan for 2025, the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire and Academic Affairs shall take steps to develop academic requirements for EDI education by moving away from dependence of a “co-curricular” certificate and developing/expanding academic offerings for EDI; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire and Academic Affairs must commit to an academic EDI certificate focused on social issues and social solutions; and

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire and Academic Affairs must aim to create a “generalized” EDI certificate that provides pursuant students with curricula that challenges beliefs and analysis based on race, gender identity, sexual orientation, dis/ability, etc. housed within the College of Arts and Sciences; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, After the creation and success of “generalized” EDI Certificate, The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire and Academic Affairs must pursue EDI certificates specialized within the remaining three colleges of Nursing and Health Sciences; Education and Human Sciences; and Business; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, Academic Affairs, and the College of Arts and Sciences must create a steering committee for the development of an EDI Certificate made up of faculty, staff, and at least three students (one director from the Equity in Student Matters Commission, the director of the Academic Affairs Commission, and an at-large student) to convene once a month until the development of the certificate and four times the year of its acquisition into university academic offerings; and
BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that upon passage of this resolution, President Gaitán will transmit a copy of this bill to Dr. James Schmidt, Chancellor; Gregory Heinselman, Dean of Students; Dr. Patricia Kleine, Provost and Vice Chancellor, Academic Affairs; Grace Crickette, Vice Chancellor, Finance and Administration; Billy Felz, Interim Vice Chancellor, Enrollment Management; Teresa O’Halloran, Interim Assistant Chancellor of EDI; Selika Ducksworth, Interim Executive Director for EDI Engagement; Evan Weiher, Chair, University Senate; Quincy Nesgoda, Student Body President, UW Eau Claire-Barron County; Gary Wheeler, Interim Campus Director, UW Eau Claire-Barron County; Dr. Aleks Sternfeld-Dun, Dean, College of Arts and Sciences; Dr. Margaret Cassidy, Associate Dean Academic Affairs & Curriculum; Brewer Doran, Ph.D., Dean, College of Business; Jean Adelle Pratt, Ph.D. Associate Dean, College of Business; Carmen Manning, Ph.D., Dean, College of Education and Human Sciences; Jill Prushie, Associate Dean, College of Education and Human Sciences; Kristen Abbot-Anderson, Ph.D., RN, CNE, Dean, College of Nursing and Health Sciences; Debra Jansen, Ph.D., RN, Associate Dean, College of Nursing and Health Sciences; Heather Ann Moody, Ed.D., Director, American Indian Studies; Paul Kaldjian, Interim Department Chair, Art & Design; Winnifred Bryant, Ph.D., Department Chair, Biology; Kent Syverson, Department Officer, Chemistry and Biochemistry; Kristine Knutson, Ph.D., Department Chair, Communication and Journalism; Alex Smith, Interim Department Chairs, Computer Science, Department Chair, Economics; Dr. Jason Spraitz, Program Coordinator, Criminal Justice; Jan Stirm, Ph.D., Department Chair, English; Ezra Zeitler, Department Chair, Geography & Anthropology; Scott Clark, Department Chair, Geology; David Jones, Ph.D., Interim Department Chair, History; Carter Smith, Ph.D., Department Chair, Languages; Manuel Fernandez, Ph.D., Program Director, Latin American and Latinx Studies; David Tschida, Ph.D., Liberal Studies; Dr. Doug Dunham, Chair, Materials Science and Biomedical Engineering; Abra Brisbin, Ph.D., Department Chair, Mathematics; Gretchen Peters, Ph.D., Department Chair, Music and Theatre Arts; Sean McAleer, Ph.D., Department Chair, Philosophy and Religious Studies; Erik Hendrickson, Ph.D., Department Chair, Physics and Astronomy; Dr. Rodd Freitag, Interim Department Chair, Political Science; Jeff Goodman, Department Chair, Psychology; Karen Mumford, Ph.D., Program Director, Public Health and Environmental Studies; Dr. Rose-Marie Avin, Director, Race, Ethnicity, Gender, & Sexuality Studies; Dr. Pamela J.
