

Title IX

Sexual Misconduct is a violation of Title IX and includes sexual harassment, sexual assault, rape, stalking, dating violence, and domestic violence.

What To Do And What To Know If You Have Been Subjected To Sexual Misconduct:

- You have the right to choose which resources you use, with whom you speak, what you say, and when you say it.
- You may seek medical attention with UW-Eau Claire Student Health Services or other medical facilities.
- You may report the sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator, the Dean of Students, Housing Staff, or University Police.
- You have a right to speak with a confidential resource such as Health Services or Counseling Services.
- The university is required to take prompt action to end reported sexual misconduct, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects.
- The university is required to provide options for changing academic or living situations in certain cases of sexual misconduct.
- Retaliation for reporting sexual misconduct or helping with an investigation is prohibited.
- There are many campus resources to help you. Please see the information listed on the reverse of this card.
